Workplace Overview - Policies & Strategies

* 1.1 Do you have formal policies and/or formal strategies in place that support gender equality in the workplace?

This question asks whether your organisation has 'policies' and/or 'strategies' in place that support gender equality in the workplace and what the policies and/or strategies include. These areas are considered key to achieving gender diversity in the composition of your workforce. If you do not have a policy and/or strategy in place, you will have the opportunity to indicate why.

Yes

Workplace Overview - Governing Bodies

1.4 Identify your organisation/s' governing body or bodies

Governing bodies are the group of people who formulate policy and direct the affairs of an institution in partnership with the managers. The core role of a governing body is the governance of an organisation. Governing bodies

- include voluntary boards of not-for-profit organisations
- are not a diversity council or committee
- are not a global diversity and inclusion team

Some organisations have common types of governing bodies. For:

- private or publicly listed companies – the governing body is one or more directors or a board of directors
- trusts – the governing body is the trustee
- partnerships – the governing body will be all or some partners (if they are elected)

Date Created: 20-05-2024

C. What type of governing body does this organisation have?

The type of governing body should be the one that has primary responsibility for the governance of each organisation ticked above

Date Created: 20-05-2024

G. Has a target been set on the representation of women on this governing body?

A target is an achievable, time-framed goal that an organisation can set to focus its efforts. A gender balance target is a goal for a specific group of people, in this case the governing body or board. Targets are different from quotas in that they are set by an organisation to suit their own results and timeframes. Quotas are set by an external body with the authority to impose them.

Employers need to be actively working to understand and address their pay equity and gender pay gaps. The first step in improving your organisation's pay equality and gender pay gap is to conduct your own pay gap analysis and understand what's driving any differentials

This question focuses on the policies and/or strategies your organisation has in place related to equal remuneration (pay equity and the gender pay gap) between women and men. If you do not have policies and/or strategies in place, you will have the opportunity to indicate why. The policies or strategies may be stand alone and/or contained within another strategy/policy.
