

Denis Muirhead (RDA, 1936) worked on pastoral and stud properties in South Australia before joining the staff at Roseworthy College, then the South Australian Department of Agriculture where he had a 20 year career as Livestock Field Officer, Sheep Husbandry Advisor and Senior Advisor in Animal Production. He served with the AIF for 4 ½ years from 1940.

During his Departmental career, he was involved with prime lamb production, then beef cattle