

allows users to extract data about publication, citations, professional activities and users within Aurora by selecting .

These data extract reports can be download into spreadsheet format (CVS/ Excel), allowing users to sort, filter and format results for the desired needs.

Users can also extract data about user pending publications requiring action via the report, Aurora account