

Also, mark in any important dates apart from your assessment due dates. These may include things such as special occasions, a planned holiday, and extra-curricular activities.

Put your planner close to where you regularly study so that you are reminded of what is coming up in the following weeks. It is not enough to simply fill in the planner at the beginning of the year, and the

Here is an example of what your weekly planner might look like. The following is based on the first semester timetable for the Bachelor of Dental Surgery:

Time	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
8-9	Travel to uni	Travel to uni	Travel to uni	Travel to uni	Travel to uni
9-10	Dental & Health Science 1 session	Human Biology pre reading	Human Biology 1D class meeting	General Studies 1D	Dental Clinical Practice

